

Being Green Saves Green at Alden Lane Nursery!

Along with an extensive selection of plants and garden supplies, Alden Lane Nursery showcases successful waste reduction through recycling and composting practices saving them over $1,000 per month. Owner Jacquie Williams-Courtright states, “As a garden center owner, I greatly appreciate Livermore Sanitation’s help in making our business even greener. Their recycling and reuse recommendations have reduced our waste and saved us money.”

The Alden Lane Nursery is located at 981 Alden Lane in Livermore. Read more about them at www.aldenlane.com.

Alden Lane has arranged for vendors to take back pallets, plant containers, and boxes for reuse; recycling and composting efforts have increased; and plant matter is composted on site. Meanwhile, food scraps and food-soiled papers are collected through Livermore Sanitation’s organics collection program.
