Did You Know?

- Foodservice businesses in the City of Livermore are prohibited from using Styrofoam® takeout containers. Foodservice businesses may choose reusable, recyclable, or compostable alternatives. Styrofoam® takeout containers are not recyclable and belong in your garbage.

- According to the Ocean Conservancy, if 25,000 people choose to “skip the straw” every time they visit a restaurant, 5 million plastic straws will be kept out of our oceans and landfills in just one year. If your business provides straws to staff or customers, consider ending that practice or switching to compostable paper straws.

Visit rethinkdisposable.com for more program information and materials.
